2015 WORLD AIDS DAY SYMPOSIUM
Sponsored by the Lifespan/Tufts/Brown CFAR and Boston University/Boston Medical Center (BUMC)

DECEMBER 1, 2015
9:30 AM - 3:30 PM
TUFTS UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
BEHRAKIS AUD RM 130
150 HARRISON AVENUE
BOSTON, MA

AGENDA

9:30am  Welcome
John Coffin, PhD, Tufts University & Ira Wilson, MD, Brown University

9:45am  CFAR Developmental Awardee Presentations

12:00pm Networking Lunch (Lunch will be provided)

1:00pm  Keynote Address: “How HIV Gets To The Brain And What It Does When It Gets There”
Ronald Swanstrom, PhD, University of North Carolina

2:00pm  HIV, Alcohol & Drug Use - BUMC Contributions
Jeffrey Samet, MD, Professor of Medicine & Community Health, Boston University

2:30pm  Why Can’t We Cure HIV Infection?
John Coffin, PhD, Professor of Molecular Biology & Microbiology, Tufts University

3:00pm  Implementing a Practice Based Approach to Improving Engagement with HIV Care in Rhode Island
Aadia Rana, MD, Assistant Professor of Medicine, Brown University

Please register to attend at: CFAR World AIDS Day Symposium

For more information about this event email us at CFAR@Lifespan.org