

Office of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies & Career Development Center

presents

MENTORING MONDAY SERIES

“Considering a Non-Academic Career Path?”

Monday, April 21, 2008

4pm – 6pm

Hemisphere Building, 167 Angell Street

Join us for short presentations and lively discussions geared towards both graduate students and Postdocs, with a focus on biology and biomedical-related degree holders. But - all are welcome!

- ❖ Learn how to use your PhD outside of academia
- ❖ Learn how other Brown PhDs have gone on to successful leadership positions in diverse career paths
- ❖ Learn what to consider before entering into the non-academic arena
- ❖ Key questions to ask yourself

Panelists Include Brown PhD Alums Who Have Chosen Non-Academic Careers

- ❖ Peter Maimonis, Ph.D., VP, Biological R & D, Decision Biomarkers, Waltham, MA
- ❖ Sarah McCabe, Ph.D., Pharmacovigilance Associate, Biogen Idec, Cambridge, MA
- ❖ Briana M. Erickson, Ph.D., Technical Specialist, Lahive & Cockfield, LLP, Boston, MA
- ❖ Alicia Chung, Ph.D., Scientific Editor, Cancer Cell/Cell Press, Cambridge, MA
- ❖ Eric Huang, Ph.D., Assoc. Director, Business Development, Acusphere, Inc., Watertown, MA

Pre-registration is requested: <http://training.brown.edu/index.php?eventID=2666>

Light appetizers, coffee, and refreshments will be served

Feel free to submit questions or topics prior to session – to be included in the discussions.

