

“PI 101”: Key Advice for the Newly Independent Investigator and Those Who Hope To Be

Monday, January 28, 2008

3:30 PM – 6:00 PM

Brown University Crystal Room – Alumnae Hall

Pre-registration is requested: <http://training.brown.edu/index.php?eventID=2471>

Short Presentations and Audience Panel Discussion on

- CV Do's and Don'ts
- Putting together and managing your research budget
- Managing your research staff and trainees to maximize their potential and the productivity of your program
- What to consider when entering into research collaborations
- Key questions to help establish priorities
- Simple steps to prevent misconduct and stay in compliance
- Institutional and individual resources for addressing sticky issues

Panelists include Division faculty who have “been there” as well as seasoned administrators who have “seen it all.”

- Carla Hansen, MSSW, Associate Dean of the Graduate School and Student Life
- Mark A. Johnson, PhD, Assistant Professor, Department of Molecular Biology, Cell Biology, and Biochemistry
- Peggy McGill, MA, CRA, Director of Research Administration, Rhode Island Hospital, The Miriam Hospital, and Bradley Hospital
- Sharon Rounds, MD, Professor of Medicine and of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine
- Anthony Spirito, PhD, Professor of Psychiatry and Human Behavior (DPHB)

Co-Sponsored by the Offices of BioMed Faculty Affairs & Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies

If there is inclement weather and the University is closed, this Event will be cancelled.
Call the Brown Snow Line at 863-3111 for information, or listen to local school closings.